Regis Sherry Joins Curry Supply as Vice President of Operations

Martinsburg, Pa., March 24, 2017 – Curry Supply Company is excited to announce that Regis Sherry has joined the organization as Vice President of Operations.

Sherry has over 26 years of experience in operations with several industries. In this new role, he will be responsible for leading the manufacturing, quality, safety, engineering, purchasing and performance of operations through Continuous Improvement methods that will support the continued growth of the Curry Supply organization.

“Taking the time to really listen, learn and exceed the expectations of both our customers and employees is the true balance that defines continued success as an organization. I will do everything possible to meet these goals through open dialogue with both our customers and employees,” states Sherry.

Sherry has a degree in Business Logistics (Pennsylvania State University), an MBA in Systems Management (Baldwin Wallace College), and several certifications in Lean manufacturing.

“We are very happy to have Regis join our team,” said Jason Ritchey, Curry Supply President. “He brings a wealth of operational experience as well as a solid understanding of supply chain management, continuous improvement and Lean manufacturing.”

Curry Supply Company is a family-owned business that was established in 1932. Over the past 85 years, Curry Supply has grown into one of America's largest manufacturers and dealers of commercial service vehicles including on- and off-road water trucks, mechanics trucks, on- and off-road fuel/lube trucks, crash attenuator trucks, vacuum trucks, winch trucks, dump trucks, and lube skids. Curry Supply delivers internationally, with sales, parts, and service provided throughout the United States.
